From: Financial Times Briefing <FT@emailbriefings.ft.com>
To: ehbarak1@gmail.com
CC:
Date: Thu, 11/6/2014 8:30:19 AM
Subject: In today's FT: Angry losers blame unpopularObama, Republicans push...

To view this email as a webpage, click here

Thursday November 06 2014

UK HOMEPAGE

Angry losers blame unpopular Obama

Results give Republicans hope of competing in presidential election

Republicans push for pro-business reform

Agenda includes tax cuts and loosening for energy and banks

Cameron loses support from EU allies

Swedish and Finnish leaders reject PM's immigration plan

VIDEO

Stocks big in Japan

Japan's shift in its QE buying from bonds to a stocks/bonds mix has pushed the Topix index 8 per cent higher. Lex's Robert Armstrong and Alan Livsey discuss whether the rally can be sustained.

US HOMEPAGE

'WireLurker' virus hits iPhones and iPads

Thousands of Apple customers may be affected as China bears the brunt

Stocks rise on Republican win, jobs data

Strong ADP report fuels optimism and reinforces dollar strength

Tesla reveals new delay to Model X launch

Shares up nearly 7% as chief reassures over demand for current model

EUROPE HOMEPAGE

MPS to seek up to €2.5bn in rights issue

Shoring-up exercise approved in wake of ECB stress tests, which found hole in balance sheet

Hungary paves way for Gazprom pipeline

Budapest ignores Brussels opposition to controversial South Stream

Plunging rouble loses central bank prop

Currency moves towards free float after losing 25% of its value

ASIA HOMEPAGE

BoJ minutes: calm before the storm

Qualcomm faces two new antitrust probes

US and EU authorities examine chip developer's behaviour

China looks to ease foreign investment rules

Plan to loosen restrictions comes amid expansion of Chinese interests abroad

WORLD NEWS

Democrats fail to get out the vote

Republicans were helped in midterm elections by elderly voters

Almost €7bn of EU budget paid out in error

Figure for last year gives ammunition to British eurosceptics

Cheaper oil 'would cost Scotland £8.7bn'

Westminster says price fall exposes risks of leaving union

Jordan accuses Israel over Jerusalem clashes

Stun grenades used to disperse the Palestinian protesters from al-Aqsa site

Grace Mugabe steps into Zimbabwe politics

Attacks on rival Mujuru suggest Mugabe is trying to keep presidency in family

COMPANIES NEWS

CBS takes 24-hour news battle online

Big Bang Theory broadcaster signs deal for Sony's new internet TV service

Takata feels impact of defective airbags

Shares in Japanese group plunge as more than 50 per cent amid recall

Carlyle leads $700m purchase of Dealogic

Financial market intelligence company is latest to fall into private equity hands

US election raises Keystone XL hopes

Republican win spurs share rise for oil sands groups

Janus chief Weil revels in Gross hire

Hiring of Pimco founder described as 'game changer'

MARKETS

Broker push helps Vodafone higher

Broad market bounce lifts FTSE 100 by 1.3%, up 85.17 points to 6,539.14

TripAdvisor sinks as earnings disappoint

US stocks climb after Republican election victory

German borrowing costs fall to record low

Five-year bond priced to yield just 0.12 per cent as Berlin waits for possible ECB stimulus

Hedge fund nightmare turns into a dream

Trend-following funds resisted pressure to abandon models as performance suffered

Market's focus on Saudi pricing is undue

Other factors are also at work, like market positioning

COMMENT

Taiwan resolves to resist China's embrace

Hong Kong is a cautionary tale for Taipei: this is what happens if you get too close to Beijing

A Taylor Swift reply to Spotify

The streaming service badly wants the singer back, but this could perhaps be her reply

Washington gridlock cannot get worse

Co-operation on some matters may make more sense than obstruction, writes Jacob Weisberg

Bell tolls for Obama ahead of 2016

Repudiated president will spend final years grappling with victorious Republicans

Immigration row will hurt Tory legacy

Cameron is writing an unhappy ending for his story of economic success

MANAGEMENT

A dark past, handled with sensitivity

The ECB helped create a memorial to Jews beneath its new HQ

Russell Brand irritates, but many listen

There is some sense, among the nonsense, in comedian's revolution

'Chinese Rules', by Tim Clissold

An old hand reveals the mysterious art of doing business in China

Manage email | Forward this email

Feedback | Manage portfolio

Subscribe to the FT

Follow the FT

Unsubscribe | My Account | RSS | Privacy Policy | About Us | Help

© THE FINANCIAL TIMES LTD 2014
You have received this email because you have signed up from the NBE preference page.
This email was sent by a company owned by Pearson plc, registered office at 80 Strand, London WC2R 0RL.
Registered in England and Wales with company number 53723.